- What's one lesson or value your parents taught you that has stuck with you the longest?

Study: Go Deeper

- Read Deuteronomy 11:18-19. Why does Moses use everyday moments like sitting, walking, and lying down to describe teaching children? What does this teach us about forming habits of faith?
- Read Psalm 127:3-5. Why do you think children are compared to arrows?
- Read 1 Corinthians 11:1. Why is it powerful to say "imitate me as I imitate Christ"? What area of your life do you hope the next generation imitates most?
- Read Ephesians 6:4. What's the difference between provoking children and bringing them up in the discipline and instruction of the Lord? Where might you need to shift your approach?
- Read Proverbs 3:5-6 & Isaiah 43:1. Why is trusting God's promises essential in influencing the next generation? What promise from Scripture do you need to hold onto right now?

Support: Grow Together

- Which of the 5 Faith Habits are already part of your daily rhythm? Which one do you sense God is prompting you to grow in?
- Who is a child, teen, or young adult in your life that you could encourage or speak faith into this week? For singles or teens: What does this passage teach you about healthy relationships and how you can prepare for the future?

Family's Heart:

You don't have to do this alone. Whether you're a parent, grandparent, mentor, or friend—God has positioned you to make an impact. Start with small, everyday moments. Faith is formed in car rides, bedtime prayers, honest talks, and steady examples. As you grow in these habits, trust that God is shaping the next generation through you.

A PRAYER FOR YOUR KIDS

Heavenly Father, thank you for entrusting these precious children to us. We acknowledge that our love for them is but a fraction of the steadfast, unfailing love You have for them. Help us to yield our hopes and plans for our children's lives to You, trusting that Your purposes for them are higher and better than ours. Instill in our children a unique love for Your Word. Give them undivided hearts resolved to serve You only, worship You only, follow You only. Please protect our children from the lies of the Enemy and fill their minds with Your truth. Instruct them and teach them in the way they should go, dear Lord. May they find their truest worth in being Your children. In Jesus' name, Amen!
