

GOD KNOWS EVERY HURT

September 21, 2025 // Job 1-42

What I Learned

- This Sunday, we learned that “God Knows Every Hurt” through the story of Job. Job loved God, but a lot of really bad things happened to him.
- Even through Job’s pain and struggles, he trusted God. God reminded Job that He was all-powerful and was always with Job.
- We learned that we are never alone or unseen when we struggle and are hurt. God sees us, knows everything about us, and loves us through everything.

Get Talking

Read Job 1-42 and highlight Job 42:1-2 as a family.

- This week, take 1 day to ask these 2 questions and spend 3 minutes talking about them:
 - Why is it difficult when bad things happen, even when you love God?
 - How can we trust that God's plan is always good?
- Talk this week about friends and family who might need to know that God knows them and loves them.
- Take time to pray for the people in their lives to know the truth about the love of God.

September Verse

“man looks on the outward appearance, but the Lord looks on the heart.” 1 Samuel 16:7b

- God sees if we are kind, honest, loving, or faithful. He notices when we want to do the right thing—even if we mess up sometimes. What matters to God is who we are on the inside, not what we look like on the outside.
