

GROWTH GUIDE

FOR YOU. YOUR FAMILY. YOUR GROUP.

WAITING TIME ISN'T WASTING TIME

For the week of April 3, 2022

Isaiah 40:31

Full message available at home.highpoint.church

OUTLINE:

Transformational Truth — When I wait on the Lord with confidence - my strength is renewed, my hope is restored, and my perseverance is revived.

SHARE: GET TALKING

In 90 seconds, share about a time you where had to wait for a long time?

STUDY: GO DEEPER

Read Isaiah 40:27. The Israelites were refugees in a foreign land. Why might they have felt unseen or disregarded by God? Have you ever felt unseen or disregarded by God? Explain.

Read Isaiah 40:12. What does this verse tell you about the magnitude of God? How does the magnitude affect how you view the magnitude of your circumstance?

Read Isaiah 40:28. Why do you think the verse starts with two questions? Are these rhetorical questions based on the rest of the verse? Explain.

Read Isaiah 40:31. How would you summarize this verse in your own words?

SUPPORT: GROW TOGETHER

What is an area you are waiting on the Lord for in your life?

Birds flap their wings incessantly. Eagles peacefully soar on currents of air. Which best describes you today? Why?

What do you feel like you need the most this week — strength renewed, hope restored, or perseverance revived? Explain.

How can we pray for and support you this week?

RENEW YOUR MIND: MEMORY VERSE

but they who wait for the Lord shall renew their strength; they shall mount up with wings like eagles; they shall run and not be weary; they shall walk and not faint. - Isaiah 40:31
