Share: Get Talking

In 90 seconds, share about a person from a previous generation that invested into your faith in Jesus. What are you grateful for? What's the best piece of wisdom they passed down to you?

Study: Go Deeper

Read Proverbs 22:6. What does it mean to train up a child?

What do you think the relationship is between training (Proverbs 22:6) and discipline (Proverbs 22:15)? How can both be used to pass on wisdom to the next generation?

On Sunday we learned that when Proverbs 22:6 says to “Train up a child in the way he should go...” it’s using a Hebrew idiom calling us to lead them to discover their own path that the Lord has for them - not simply the way we think they should go. With your kids, grandkids or younger loved ones - is that hard for you? Explain your answer.

Review the “Next Gen Love Challenge” that your Location Pastor gave us this Sunday. Which challenge do you need to work on this coming week? What changes is God calling you to make?

Love the Next Generation Enough to...

- Admit When You’re Wrong (Proverbs 28:13)
- Connect and Not Just Correct (1 Thessalonians 2:8)
- Be Refined by Adversity and Not just Defined by it (James 1:2-4)
- Replace Attitudes of Entitlement and Privilege with Sernathood and Thanksgiving (Philippians 2:3-4)
- Know What Hills to Die On (John 3:17)
- Walk the Walk and NOT Just Talk the Talk (Ephesians 4:13)

Support: Grow Together

On a scale of 1-10, how would you rate your personal radical reliance on God? How would rate your effectiveness in training the next generation to radically rely on God? What needs to change?

What kind of impact do you want your life to have in 50 years from now? How can God empower you to start that work this week?

How can we support and pray for you this week?

Renew Your Mind: Memory Verse

“Train up a child in the way he should go; even when he is old he will not depart from it.” - Proverbs 22:6
